

15 MINUTE MAKE...

In Bloom

Brighten somebody's day with this bold floral greeting

Although it's easy to keep in touch on the phone or online, you just can't bet the thrill of receiving a handmade greeting in the post. This lovely design by Tracy Daykin-Jones is perfect for sending 'just because'. Featuring brightly patterned papers and alphabet thickers, it can be put together in a matter of minutes!

We used...

* Card, white * Papers, American Crafts, Shimelle Never Grow Up 12" x 12" pad * Embellishments, American Crafts, Shimelle Never Grow Up, Here We * Go foam thickers * Punch, corner rounder * Adhesives

1 Mount green wavy paper onto a side-folding blank. Trim floral paper slightly smaller and round off the corners.

2 Snip a rectangle from pink and cut into a pennant at one end. Spell 'Hello' in alphabet thickers and fix to the strip.

3 Score and fold the left-hand edge of the strip, then secure the flap to the reverse of the floral panel. Fix to the greeting with foam pads to finish.

Craft smart

Alphabet thickers help to give your message a real impact!
